

Stop discrimination!

The Ombud for Equal Treatment
offers advice and support

Discrimination is forbidden!

Discrimination is the disadvantageous treatment of a person because of certain characteristics:

- sex /gender
- ethnicity or skin colour
- religion or belief
- age
- sexual orientation

Harassment is also a form of discrimination.

Discrimination happens for example

- when a 55-year-old doesn't get a job because he is "too old"
- when a woman wearing a headscarf is being insulted at work
- when a man loses his job because he is homosexual
- when a family cannot rent an apartment because they come from abroad
- when a woman is being groped by her doctor
- ...

Have you experienced discrimination?

We provide advice and assistance!

- We explain your options to you.
- We inform you about your rights.
- We help you to access your rights.
- We document discrimination.

Please contact us when you feel discriminated against. We will discuss possible further steps.

There are 5 regional offices in Austria:
Vienna, Graz, Klagenfurt, Linz and Innsbruck

Contact us for a personal consultation by phone, e-mail or mail.

If required, we can organise interpretation services for your counselling session.
